Avalon Center's
2018 Annual Report

Message from the Director

Dear Friends,

There is a special Virginia license plate available that reads: "Peace Begins at Home." It was designed to benefit domestic violence agencies like Avalon. I was personally happy to get one myself, because I think the message sums up what we do so well. While reading the facts and figures contained in this year's annual report, it's a good time to reflect on that message and the impact our services have on individual lives and the community.

Nationally, about one in four individuals will be the victim of domestic or sexual violence, and sadly many children are witnesses to this violence. Without intervention, the effects can include a lifetime of physical and mental illness and a high risk of continuing a cycle of abuse. Three years ago, Avalon set out to expand our capacity to reach more survivors and also reach a younger age. We envisioned a highly aware community that could work together to identify the warning signs of domestic and sexual violence and to promote healthy relationships. We are committed to strengthening community partnerships to assure comprehensive, best practice services that are easy to access. These efforts are reflected in the increasing number of survivors served.

Welcome New Board Members!

Please join us in welcoming three new members to the Avalon Center Board of Directors:

Juanita Parks of Williamsburg Landing,
Ruth Cason of Cason Custom Homes,
Tori Gussman, retired from Colonial Williamsburg.

Avalon receives over half of its funding from local, state and federal government sources, so the recent extended Federal government shutdown presented us with the added stress of not knowing whether we might face the suspension of core services. We are grateful that hasn't happened, but reminded of the need to raise more of our operating funds from other sources. The strength of Avalon will always be in the support of our community, which built the organization some 40 years ago. That support is reflected in the number of volunteer hours, the items donated and in your financial support.

In 2019, the Board of Directors will begin defining new goals and objectives for the coming years and hold the first meeting of a new advisory board. We expect to re-apply for dual agency accreditation through the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services. We anticipate adding some new community-based housing resources for survivors.

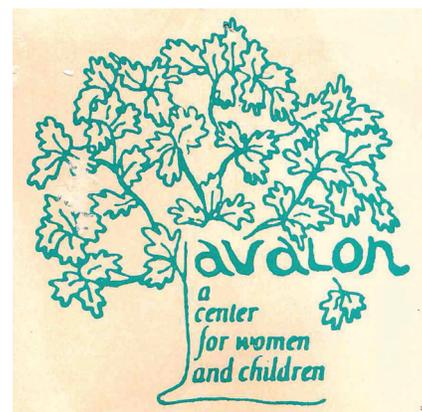

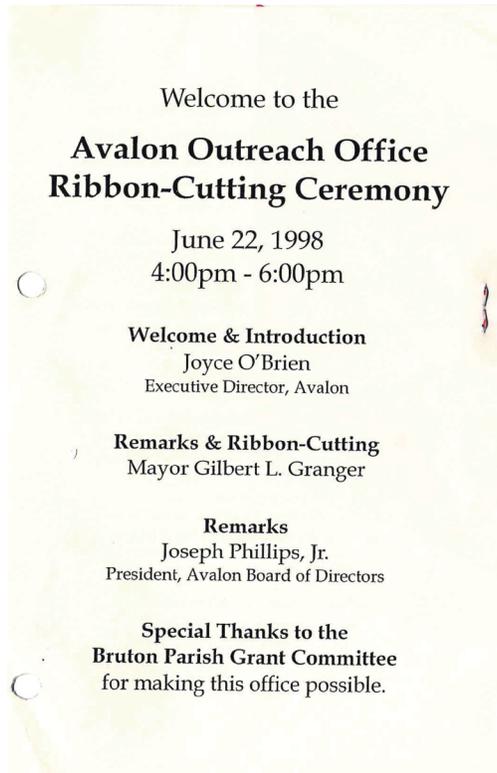

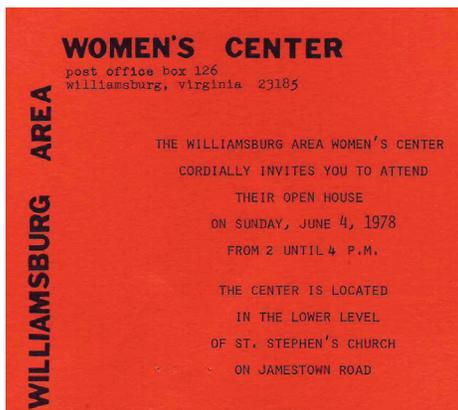

It's an exciting time to be involved at Avalon and I want to be sure you know how thankful we are to have you with us on the journey, as we work together for a more peaceful community. Please feel free to give me a call any time to arrange a tour or talk about how you can be more involved.

Sincerely,

Teresa Christin

Volunteer Spotlights

William & Mary Law students Martin Culig (center left) and Zach McDonnell (center right) began volunteering in early 2017. They take on every task from data entry to groundskeeping with equal gusto! Congratulations on your upcoming graduation, and thank you for two years of phenomenal service.

During this year's United Way Day of Caring, Marjorie Daniel and a team of volunteers from Ball Metal painted the living room and conference room in the shelter office. Another group of volunteers from Colonial Heritage braved the late summer heat to do yardwork around the shelter campus.

Amy Dayton began volunteering in the fall of 2017. She is a Mary-Kay Independent Sales Director and facilitates self-care workshops once a month for residents at Avalon's shelter. She teaches skin care, work-appropriate make up techniques, and other beauty tips. Amy says she "loves Mary Kay because of their commitment to end domestic violence, and the support they provide to shelters all over the United States to advance that effort."

Thanks to Melinda Cousins (left) of Backyard Birder and her wife Jeanne Ruff (right), Avalon's shelter campus has a beautiful bird feeder! One of the clients at the shelter shared this story: "I was feeling down when I first arrived at the shelter. Two kids and no direction. But when the feeder was put up the first birds that I saw come visit were two cardinals. Those were my dad and granddad's favorite birds. I knew then that they were watching over me and everything would be okay."

Laura Emery (right, with her daughter) joined Avalon's volunteer team in the fall of 2017. A certified Gracie Jiu-Jitsu Self Defense Instructor, Laura teaches classes at the shelter and outreach. Laura said, "Unlike most self-defense systems that rely on strength, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu uses techniques that employ leverage and timing so anyone, regardless of age or ability, can make these techniques work. I feel so honored to work with Avalon and I hope to continue to help build a strong foundation for all who need a fresh start!"

A Busy Year!

July: Summer Strong Camp

Avalon Youth Services' "Summer Strong" Summer Camp returned for a second year! The summer camp is geared towards children who have experienced violence or trauma, and meant to help campers build resilience and confidence.

Each day of the two-week camp had a theme. The first week included activities to teach communication skills, how to practice self-care and how to set healthy boundaries. Some of week two's themes were emotions, resiliency and safety.

While "Summer Strong" featured lessons about serious topics, the kids also enjoyed classic summer camp activities. Campers tried yoga, learned to salsa dance, pet therapy dogs, visited a fire station and made crafts!

October: "In Her Shoes"

This past October, for Domestic Violence Awareness Month, Avalon hosted the "In Her Shoes" Workshop. Sponsored by the Williamsburg Police Department, the event used the guide developed by the Washington State Coalition against Domestic Violence.

Participants experienced the roles of diverse victims through character cards. Scenarios are based on true stories and help us answer that enduring question: if someone is in an abusive relationship... why don't they just leave? "In Her Shoes" demonstrates that an individual's escape from abuse is complicated and unpredictable. The event highlighted specific barriers that abused victims face when they are poor or become poor as a result of domestic violence.

Domestic violence is a community problem, not just a personal responsibility. We all have a role to embrace to end abuse.

Special thanks to William & Mary's Kappa Delta, who provided refreshments and brought passionate volunteers to assist in making the event possible.

November: The Avalon Classic

The third annual Avalon Classic was a hole-in-one! The threatening rain held off, and 104 golfers enjoyed a mild afternoon on the links. The tournament raised $20,000 for Avalon! Many thanks to our hardworking golf committee: chairs Betsy and Joe Conboy, Jane Brown, Erna Rodgers, Joe Conboy, Judy Wickens, Dinky Newman, and Dianne Kessler.

November: Holiday Reception

Avalon hosted a holiday reception for donors, volunteers and our Board of Directors. We honored incoming and outgoing Board members, celebrated a year of continued growth for Avalon, enjoyed some holiday goodies, and handed out Avalon ornaments. (Pictured second from the bottom, volunteer Marisol Lambert and Avalon Board Chair Emily Rossiter.

December: Adopt-a-Family

Our Adopt-a-Family program had a banner year, providing holiday gifts for 65 clients and their families. Local organizations, businesses and individuals were extremely generous and thoughtful this year! Our friends at Fort Magruder Hotel donated nine bicycles, En Pointe Dance Academy hosted a Angel Tree for Avalon, and Scares for Cares and Elf Patrol donated hundreds of new toys - just to name a few!

Thank you to our genero
